2020 Innovations in Ophthalmology

Exhibitor Prospectus

Aqua Turf Club · 556 Mulberry Street, Plantsville, CT

WELCOME

Dear Exhibitor,

Connecticut Society of Eye Physicians Scientific Meeting & Vendor Expo is now offering the most comprehensive and stimulating array of ophthalmology information and technology ever assembled. This meeting, in addition to outstanding scientific lectures, retina, cornea, cataracts, ocular, pediatric ophthalmology which includes a stimulating socio-economic program designed to address issues including Medical Liability, HIPAA, Coding, Compliance and Telemedicine.

This state-of-the-art meeting also features panel discussions with national educators on controversial issues and surgical techniques, award lectures on drug therapies and other instructional CME presentations, designed to address education gaps presented by members and reviewd by our education committee.

The scientific program will highlight some of the latest clinical innovations and technological developments. (See agenda for more details, which are in compliance with ACCME commercial support for these activities). To view these standards go to: http://www.accme.org/requirements/accreditation-requirements-cme-providers/standards-for-commercial-support.

The annual meeting presents a unique opportunity for you to interact with the members of CSEP over 300 strong, an organization representing over 92% of ophthalmologists practicing in Connecticut and display your innovations and drug therapies.

The exhibition floor is designed to maximize physician-representative interaction, with plenty of exhibit time during the course of the program provided in the agenda. In addition, industry friends are invited to attend the scientific sessions and to participate in all planned non-CME social events.

In this prospectus, you will find information on other digital advertising opportunities as well as other opportunities.

Your support as an exhibitor is vital to the success of our meeting. Our goal is for you to return to your company confident that you earned an outstanding return on your exhibiting investment.

Mark you calendar and register for this well attended Annual Meeting.

We look forward to seeing you at the Agua Turf.

With best regards,

Diburch Osborn

Executive Director

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

• Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
